On 5/5/69, CONSTANCE MILES, student, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., residing at 3700 Reservoir Road, N.W., Permanent address, Millers Mill Road, Cooksville, Maryland, was interviewed by SAs JAMES F. BRENNAN and JOHN T. ALDHIZER. MILES was interviewed for any information she may have regarding <sup>FURNISHED</sup> a bank robbery (WFO 91-4057). During interview, MILES forwarded the following information:

She is currently a sophomore at Georgetown University and has been a member of the Black Student Alliance (BSA) at Georgetown University since last year. There are approximately 35-40 black students currently at Georgetown University. About 20 of these persons are members of the Black Student Alliance.

The BSA is led by BERNARD WHITE but, elections for next year have been held and (FNU) ROBINSON, will be the leader next year. The BSA expects approximately 15 new members next year, which will rise membership to approximately 35.

MILES stated that the BSA has made few demands of the University Administration. The BSA demanded and received a few courses on black study. Recently, the BSA sponsored the Black Awareness Week at Georgetown where speakers were featured such as CHESOLM and JULUS HOBSON. She stated sessions ~~for~~ the Black Awareness Week drew small crowds, but, was considered very successful by members of the BSA.

MILES stated her organization is called the Black Student Alliance and is not connected with the Black Student Union (BSU) at other colleges.

She stated that to her knowledge no BSU organization exists at Georgetown.
